

Discussion Questions for Feisty Deeds II: Historical Tales of Batches and Brews

Book Club Discussion Questions

By Patty W. Warren

1. Do you find yourself gravitating to a certain story or chapter? If so, which one(s)? What parts of the story/chapter attracted you? The plot, the characters, the setting? Or something else?
2. My story, "Love Happily Ever After," was in Chapter 1. It was focused on female friendships and how love carries us through our lives. Were you more interested in reading the "feel-good" stories or the stories with more action? Why?
3. Food is involved in many of the stories. What stories with food interested you? Would you eat any of the food items discussed?
4. Did you have a favorite title? Did the story keep your interest based on the title?
5. Did you learn something from any of the stories? If so, what did you learn and what surprised you about the story, setting, or time period?
6. Did you like all the beginnings and endings of the stories? Was there a story that you wish had a different ending? If so, why?
7. What character in what story did you most relate to? Did you have a favorite? Why?
8. What story prompted the strongest emotion from you?
9. What character would you like to meet in real life?
10. What location in the book would you like to visit the most? Why?
11. Would you recommend this book to a friend? How would you summarize it?